GIVE PEACE A CHANCE

As of 2020-10-24, Alexander Bitar is announcing the founding of the Give Peace a Chance Foundation.

On October 24, in the year of 1945, the United Nations was founded. In 1945, nations were in ruins. The Third Reich had fallen; the Second World War was over, and the world wanted peace – hence the United Nations. At that time, the word “peace” was the opposite word of war. Today, the word peace has a different definition. It includes everything from poverty to climate change. The list of global issues is infinite. To state that we, in 2020, live in peace, would be an incorrect statement.

No one can do everything, but everyone can do something. That’s a phrase we’ve all heard. In terms of philanthropy and helping others, it’s the most accurate method there is. Together, the changes can be made. The dreams and visions can be made into reality. Today, on October 24, it’s exactly 75 years ago since the United Nations was founded. I’m proud to announce that I’m launching a new charity organization on this very day. A non-profit entitled Give Peace a Chance with a lifelong mission to discourage inequity, and hence achieve PEACE in its true definition.

Give Peace a Chance will be connected to Alexander Bitar History in the sense that proceeds of all sales will benefit the foundation.
